

STAFF TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT POLICY

1. PURPOSE

- 1.1 Vision Kitchens & Joinery ('Vision Kitchens') recognises the importance of training and developing its staff.
- 1.2 Vision Kitchens understands that its employees are key to its success as an organisation. It therefore encourages its staff to be continually improving their skills and abilities both through on-the-job and off-the-job training.
- 1.3 Vision Kitchens acknowledges that training and development of staff provides benefits both to its employees in terms of their overall career and prospects for advancement within the organisation, as well as being central to the success it is able to achieve as a business.
- 1.4 This Staff Training and Development Policy (Policy) sets out what Vision Kitchens may offer employees through training and development opportunities aimed at promoting the growth of individuals, teams and achieving success for the organisation.

2. COMMENCEMENT OF POLICY

- 2.1 This Policy will commence on 2/11/2021. It replaces all other policies dealing with staff training and development (whether written or not).

3. APPLICATION OF THE POLICY

- 3.1 This Policy applies to all employees of Vision Kitchens. This Policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment.

4. TRAINING

- 4.1 Vision Kitchens may require you to undertake specific training related to your current position, or as a prerequisite for performing a different position, for example if you are promoted to a higher position. Any such training may be carried out either at Vision Kitchens's premises or externally.
- 4.2 Training opportunities may also arise as part of your performance review. Vision Kitchens encourages employees to propose suggestions for employment-related training to assist their development.
- 4.3 You are required to have the permission of Vision Kitchens prior to either signing up, or attending, a training course. If you fail to obtain permission, Vision Kitchens at its discretion, may decide not to reimburse you for any course fees you have paid or discipline you for any unauthorised time you have taken off work (up to and including termination of employment).

5. HOW DOES STAFF DEVELOPMENT WORK?

- 5.1 Individual staff training and development needs should be discussed during Vision Kitchens's staff development review process. The review process is designed to:
 - a) encourage constructive dialogue between staff members and their supervisors;

- b) enhance the staff member's professional development;
- c) clarify job responsibilities and performance goals/expectations;
- d) establish appropriate development and performance objectives;
- e) help staff identify a possible career path for themselves;
- f) identify ways in which Vision Kitchens's organisation and/or operation might enable individuals to improve their performance;
- g) ensure that information on job performance and achievements is recorded in each staff member's employment history; and
- h) provide a basis for decisions on remuneration.

6. WHAT CAN Vision Kitchens OFFER?

6.1 Vision Kitchens may offer any of the following opportunities for staff development:

- a) an induction program when you join Vision Kitchens, to understand the manner in which Vision Kitchens operates, including what contribution you are expected to make;
- b) various degrees of support as you develop the competence and capability for which you have been employed;
- c) the opportunity to develop new competencies and capabilities relevant to your employment with Vision Kitchens, and which enhance your career prospects and lifelong learning both within and outside Vision Kitchens;
- d) to participate in Vision Kitchens's staff development review process with your line manager, including identifying opportunities for ongoing training and/or support, an annual review of your previous development programs and identification of plans for the future; and
- e) an exit interview when you leave Vision Kitchens, so that your comments may be incorporated into the development programs of other members of staff.

7. WHAT Vision Kitchens EXPECTS FROM YOU

7.1 Vision Kitchens expects that you will:

- a) develop your skills and capabilities which are aligned to Vision Kitchens's strategy at the appropriate level, e.g. team or individual;
- b) participate in staff development review process in partnership with your line manager, including an annual review of your past development and identification of future plans;
- c) take personal responsibility to update your specific expertise on a regular basis, as appropriate to the nature of your job;
- d) identify any training and development opportunities and raise these with management for their consideration;
- e) contribute to team staff development where appropriate; and

- f) keep a record of your staff development activity.

Variations

Vision Kitchens reserves the right to vary, replace or terminate this policy from time to time.
